

Magnetic Peeler Set
 Featured in July 2010 Issue
Cooking Light

THE Editor's DOZEN

12 things (and a BONUS)
 in the mix for a great JULY

1 Brilliant coconut shell bowls
 Made from the real thing. Just add sorbet ($60/set of 6, liyjuliet.com).

2 Basket built for two
 Each natural willow Picnic Plus Eco basket has a pair of bamboo plates and utensils, a cutting board, and two wineglasses made from recycled glass ($106, available from cooking.com).

3 OLD WORLD MEETS NEW
 HAND-PAINTED PIECES FROM AN ITALIAN FAMILY'S MEXICAN STUDIO
 ($50, AMORETTIBROTHERS.COM)

4 Magnetic appeal
 Magnets in the handles of Progressive's nested peeler trio mean you'll never lose track of them in a cluttered drawer. Includes plain, serrated, and Y-shaped julienne ($12, available from amazon.com).

PHOTOGRAPHY: RANDY MAYOR

20 COOKING LIGHT JULY 2010