Steamed New Potatoes in Sage Butter Sauce
Makes 6 to 8 servings.

1 1/2 pounds of new red potatoes (about 4 cups)
1/4 cup of water
1/2 cup of chopped onion
3/4 teaspoon of salt
1 teaspoon of Dijon mustard
2 tablespoons of chopped fresh sage leaves
3/4 ground black pepper
4 tablespoons of butter at room temperature cut up into small pieces

With a vegetable peeler, peel a strip of skin from the potatoes around the middle making a band. If some potatoes are large, cut them to the same size. Place water and chopped onion in bottom of the Rice and Pasta Cooker. Insert the basket. Add the potatoes. Sprinkle salt evenly over potatoes. Snap the cover into place with locking clamps.

Microwave potatoes on high for 11 - 13 minutes or until tender. Lift basket with potatoes out of the Cooker; set aside. Add mustard, sage and black pepper to the remaining water and onion mixture in the bottom of the cooker. Add potatoes to the sauce mixture along with butter. Stir until the butter is melted and the potatoes are coated in the sauce. Serve immediately.
Pasta and Vegetable Salad with White Balsamic Dressing

8 cups of water
8 ounces of dried mini fusilli pasta
2 teaspoons salt
3 cups of assorted vegetables
(broccoli, sugar snap peas, red bell peppers and carrots) cut into bite sized pieces
¼ cup of green onion, thinly sliced

Place water, pasta and salt in bottom of the Rice and Pasta Cooker with the basket in place. Snap the cover into place with locking clamps. Microwave on high for 16-18 minutes or until the pasta is al dente.

Meanwhile, combine the ingredients for the dressing. Whisk and set aside.

When the pasta is done cooking, remove cover and add the chopped vegetables to the hot pasta and cooking water. Cover and allow to stand for 30 seconds. Lift basket out of the Cooker and place immediately in a bowl of ice water to chill the pasta and vegetables. Drain well.
